

I am not in favor of RM-10868.

The Morse code requirement for amateur radio is an anachronism. Many countries have already completely eliminated any Morse code requirements for their Amateur Radio Service. It seems silly for our service to cling to an obsolete mode for no reasons other than nostalgia or as a litmus test to keep the great unwashed out of an exclusive club.